THE BARNACLE

CLASS OF 1941

BARNSTABLE HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

THE feeling of accomplishment rises within us as graduation approaches, bringing with it the satisfaction of a well-earned reward. Realizing that we are now about to separate and that each will go his own way in search of new fields to conquer, we should bear in mind the significance that our class seal holds for us. At the present time our seal, clearly discernible, shines with a brilliant hue. In like manner, confidence in ourselves and an enthusiasm for living urges us on. But the seal — like all gilded objects — will eventually become dull unless polished by daily wear. Realizing this need in ourselves, we should mold our lives so that our confidence will grow rather than diminish and so that our interests will always be broad. Let us, therefore, resemble the seal in that our lives shall continue to hold their color and lustre in the far future even as in this bright new day.

To
William Leo Shields

who, as our class adviser and friend, has piloted us through shoals and past rocks where we else had foundered, the Class 1941 dedicates this edition of The Barnacle.

CLASS SONG

TUNE: Aloha Oe

Now has come the hour and sad the parting.
The days we've spent with thee are through.
Though the years may pass, we will be faithful
And to thee, Barnstable, we will be true.

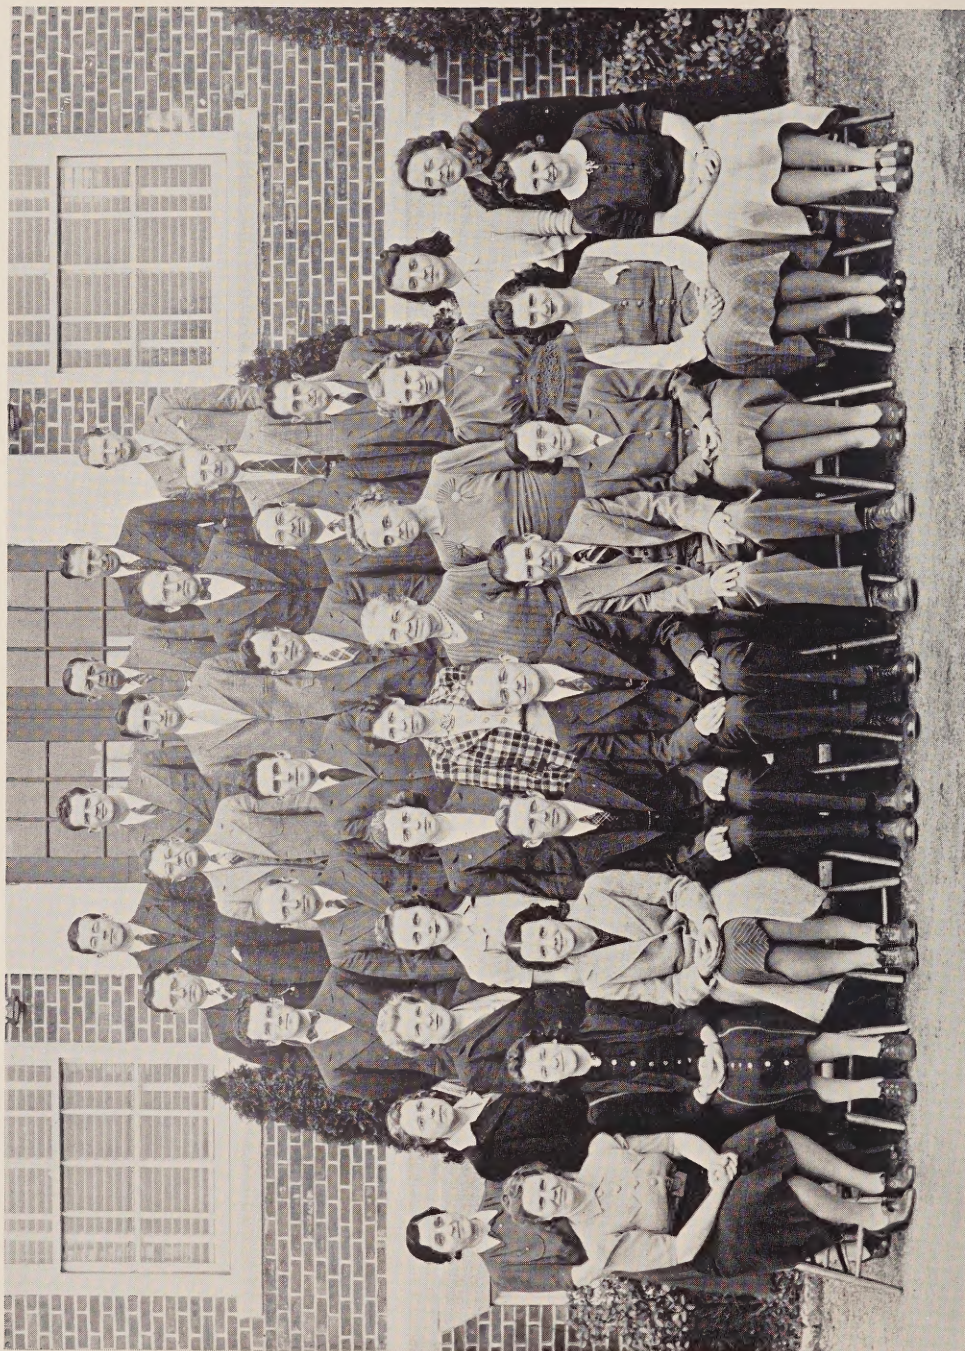

FIRST CHORUS

And as we go from these portals,
Your old traditions are around us hung,
To thee we pledge our loyalty fore'er
To Barnstable in forty-one.

SECOND CHORUS

Farewell to thee, dear Barnstable High,
But you will always linger in our mem'ry
And as we climb life's golden stairs of fame,
Our inspiration you'll be.

Rose Anna Walsh

THE termination of six years' study, fun, and frolic at Barnstable High shows that we have attained the goal toward which we have striven. The Course had its sand pits as well as its fairways, but eighty-nine of us have successfully arrived on the last green. With the thrills of our experiences still fresh in mind, we shall begin to narrate them.

It was in September, 1935 that we entered the portals of B. H. S. with an enrollment of 134 members. A large part of the class joined the newly organized Athletic Association, whose aim was to join the pupils more closely together. That first year revealed that the class was going to do well in the field of oratory, for in the junior high speaking contest Esther Scudder and Phyllis Starck won first and second prizes respectively. One of the strong supporters of public speaking was Corinne Hurst, who joined us as English teacher that year. Even at the outset, upper classmen were beginning to take notice of us "petits enfants".

After a pleasant summer lolling in the sun, the class returned to find that Mrs. Eldredge had retired and that we had gained such members to the faculty as Cornelius Fair, Elliot MacSwan, Evelyn Banning, and Louise Clark. The school enriched itself by earning a moving picture projector after a strenuous magazine subscription drive, as well as by inaugurating under Mrs. Hurst's leadership a Better Speech Club.

Outstanding that year were Marcia Perin, Esther Scudder and Phyllis Starck in dramatics; and Maye Anderson and Barbara Pinkham in scholarship.

The last year as members of the junior high saw seeds planted in various fields that have yielded bountiful harvests these last years. In public speaking we watched Audrey Allen and Marcia Perin rise to the top to capture first and second places in the junior high speaking contest. The large group that comprised the "Clipper" staff that year — namely, Priscilla Nason, Alice Slavin, Rose Anna Walsh, and Freeman Crowell — showed that we had writers among us; moreover, the attendance of Ray Duthie and Thomas Rennie at the New England Music Festival revealed that we had also become music conscious. A competent instructor in music was Dorothy Barton, who, along with Chester Jordan, Wilbur Cheever, and William Hodgkinson, Jr., joined the faculty that year. Worthy of praise are Roger Monteiro in football, Marie Lebel in basketball, and John Drew in baseball. They all attained first string positions as freshmen on the various teams.

Mindful of the fact that we rule ourselves by a democratic system of government, the class became organized in the fall of 1938, with Robert Starck, president; Alice Slavin, vice-president; Rose Anna Walsh, secretary; and Miriam Hinckley, treasurer. Knowing that every class must have a counselor to aid in directing affairs, we chose Leo Shields as class adviser. During this year we also voted for Marie Lebel and Thomas Rennie to serve on the student council.

Music was the field we excelled in that year, for our orchestra journeyed to Rhode Island to play in a combined concert with members of the Pawtucket High School's musical department; moreover, later during the year members of the band and the string quartet, of which Ray Duthie was a member, travelled to the Fall River State Festival and to Burlington, Vermont, where amid winding trails and misty mountains they spent a pleasant weekend by Lake Champlain.

Although we hadn't as yet brought forth any prominent literary geniuses, the "Clipper" staff with Marion Brink as adviser issued some excellent editions.

Not only did music and literature progress rapidly but the F. F. A. received a hardy supporter when B. H. S. received Eric Vendt as an instructor. Alice Noble, Marion Brink, and Leo Shields strengthened the faculty in other subjects.

Since we were eligible for admission into the Senior Dramatic Club that year, Phyllis Starck, Audrey Allen, Virginia Brown, Esther Scudder, Jacqueline Clark, Sylvia Sundelin, Bryant Besse, and Paul Clark joined the club to further their dramatic training.

A large number went out for sports in our sophomore year, but because of upper classmen who held the berths, our rookies were unable to show their colors.

We sponsored a well attended St. Patrick Dance for our first social affair, at which balloons and shamrocks, designed and arranged by the dance committee, made the occasion even more enjoyable.

Returning in the September of 1939 to a renovated building, we underwent severe casualties in two fields, for fourteen members of the class had left us, and Mrs.

Chaffee had resigned. However, the class weathered these troubles and elected Chalmers Milne, president; Marie Lebel, vice-president; Virginia Brown, treasurer; and Rose Anna Walsh, secretary. To the student council we sent Miriam Hinckley. To the faculty came Harvard H. Broadbent, whom we stole from Falmouth. To make the most of the remodeled building, library facilities were rendered more convenient by the arrival of a full-time librarian, Mrs. Barr.

Now that we were becoming known, many of our classmates became full fledged members of various organizations, for in the musical department we had Maye Anderson, Bruce Allen, Carroll Baker, Mary Eldredge, Jacqueline Clark, Ray Duthie, Esther Scudder, William Chaffin, Louise Bartlett, and Paul Sethares — the latter five attending the annual New England Music Festival. At this time Jacqueline Clark won the Drum Major Baton Twirling Contest and was presented a lighted baton by the American Legion. Sports were well represented, for in football we no longer saw “the old gang”, but instead such large, broad-shouldered men of the gridiron as Ralph Bassett, Manuel Brito, Chalmers Milne, Ted Harlow, Roger Monteiro, Roy Brown, Bill Crosby, “Skull” Monroe, Ivar Johnson, and Gordon West. On the diamond John Drew, Roger Monteiro, Roger Scudder, Robert Starck, John Monroe, Ivar Johnson, and Thomas Rennie showed themselves in new clean uniforms. Shooting for the basket were Bruce Allen, Freeman Crowell, John Drew, Joe Neves, Chalmers Milne, Thomas Rennie, Paul Sethares, and Ivar Johnson. In the other sports were veteran Jones and Rennie tramping the fairways; Brito, Bassett, Crosby, Milne, and Clark, who filled various posts on the track. The girls did well for themselves, too, for rushing down the field of hockey were Maye Anderson, Barbara Benjamin, Louise Bartlett, and Marie Lebel. Trying for long shots in basketball were Maye Anderson, Marie Lebel, Alice Slavin, and Miriam Hinckley.

Following the now-established custom, we held on April 12, 1940, the annual junior class play. Ours was “Skidding”, which gave some of the trials and tribulations of the Hardy family. Members who participated were Jacqueline Clark, Ray Duthie, Phyllis Starck, and Betty Holden.

The other large social event given by the class was the Junior Prom held on May 17. A new and extremely lovely setting was arranged by committee members, Maye Anderson, Marie Lebel, Miriam Hinckley, Thomas Rennie, Harry Long, Freeman Crowell, Audrey Allen, Phyllis Starck, Alice Slavin, Roger Scudder, and Bruce Allen. On entering the hall, dancers came into what seemed a large garden. Tall white pillars topped with blue lights overhung a trellis and fences covered with rambling flowers, while shrubbery and pine branches furnished a green background and a tangy odor. Lawn umbrellas and chairs gave the appearance of a summer garden, and Artie Davis’s music, combined with soft lighting, provided everyone with a good time.

Since this was the last year we could place members on the “Clipper” staff, representation on the body was large. Led by editor Alice Slavin were Rose Anna Walsh, Sylvia Sundelin, Audrey Allen, James Barry, Ross Davies, Jacqueline Clark, Freeman Crowell, and Carroll Baker; moreover, to aid in typing the material we had Janet Allen, Marilyn Blagden, Louise Bartlett, Virginia Brown, John Fortes, Lillian MacIsaac, Marion Maki, Florence Matson, and Jean Ryder on the typographical staff. The magazine through the combined efforts of the staff and Miss Brink won second place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Competition.

In the annual Elks essay contest on Americanism, Marie Lebel won second prize.

With eighty-nine members our final year at Barnstable High began in the fall of 1940. For class officers we chose Chalmers Milne again as president; Phyllis Starck, vice-president; Ray Duthie, treasurer; and Rose Anna Walsh for the third successive time as secretary. The new student council member was Ivar Johnson. Esther Saunders, Anne Corcoran, and John Linehan became faculty members.

We had lost so much talent by previous graduations in our musical activities that this year was spent more in training periods than in exhibitions; however, we did send Ray Duthie, concert mistress of the orchestra this year, Esther Scudder, and Barbara Wheeler to New London, Connecticut. We were greatly honored on April 6, 1941, when Bedich Vaska, the world renowned cellist, gave a concert sponsored by Mr. Griffiths's musical organizations.

In dramatics we entered the field of radio, for every Thursday afternoon over station WOCB various members furnished interesting programs. On two of these occasions we were proud to hear scripts written by Rose Anna Walsh. The dramatic clubs also presented at Christmas time "The Music Box", a simple but impressive play, enacted by various senior members.

For the first time in the history of the school, the debating team won the state championship, enabling them to compete in the Nationals at Kentucky. Our classmate, Alice Slavin, was one of the fortunate ones to go to the blue grass country for a week.

Highlight of the year in sports was the Nantucket versus Barnstable "Chowder Bowl" classic, which decided that B. H. S. was the Cape Champion. All-Cape Team members this year were Roger Monteiro, captain of the football team, Roy Brown, Ted Harlow, Manuel Brito, and Ralph Bassett. Our basketball team, led on by Captain Drew, proved mighty in the end and defeated Wellfleet, Provincetown, and Orleans in the Cape and Islands tournament, losing only to Edgartown. In baseball, Captain Starck, backed by veterans Scudder, Drew, Monteiro, Monroe, Johnson, and Rennie brought back the laurels to B. H. S. Girls' basketball, captained by Marie Lebel, came through once again with a successful season, losing only to Provincetown. In hockey Barbara Scudder, Mary Eldredge, Phyllis Bussiere brought home the bacon.

We chose for the D. A. R. pilgrim Maye Anderson, who was deemed outstanding in scholastic and good citizenship traits.

The high spot of our social activities was the musical comedy, "The Count and the Coed," written by Geoffrey Morgan and Geoffrey O'Hara, the latter an acquaintance of all of us. This event was noteworthy, not only because we sold every seat in the house, but also because we showed that originality counts, for in choosing the comedy we broke tradition and created somewhat of a sensation. Members of the class who portrayed the various characters were Roger Scudder, Dean of the College; Miriam Hinckley, his wife; Esther Scudder, the belle of the campus; Phyllis Starck, housemother; Betsey Perry, the President's daughter; and Paul Clark, college comedian.

Now that our career at Barnstable High is rapidly drawing to a close, it is only natural that we are both sad and happy — sad to leave our alma mater in which our teachers strove tirelessly to bring out the best in us, happy to feel that we have been successful in earning our diploma. With this symbol of achievement in hand, each of us can now open the door which leads to his vocation.

CLASS MOTTO

“To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.”

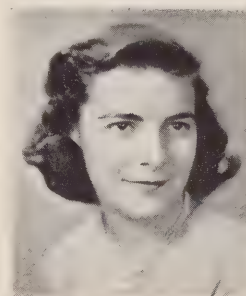

AUDREY ALLEN

Osterville

"Silent? Nay, you know me not."

Pretty and lovable, Audrey has won the hearts of all her classmates and teachers. Her cheerful disposition goes well with her dark hair and shining eyes. She is majoring in history next year in college and may make a little history herself eventually.

BRUCE ALLEN

Hyannis

"I am as free as Nature first made man."

Although Bruce always seems to be laughing or fooling, he does have his serious moments. He certainly can be forgiven his heedless pranks because of his pleasing personality. Playing his alto sax, Bruce is an addition to both band and orchestra. He has also shown his skill on the basketball floor. He will probably continue after graduation from high school his work as teller in the bank where he is now employed part time.

JANET ALLEN

Hyannis

"Action and life! Lo, here the key."

Janet always has an endless stream of energy. Besides carrying five major subjects this year, she has found time to work proficiently in a town store after school. Moreover, she greatly aided the Barnacle advertising committee by finding many advertisements. That her high standing as a member of the secretarial course will stand her in good stead goes without saying.

BEATRICE ANDERSON

Hyannis

"Would that she had been more among us."

"Bea", our latest high honor student, joined us in 1940. With her pleasing personality, ready smile, and volunteering spirit, she soon won her way into our friendship. As a dancer "Bea" is one of the best. "Bea" is a combination of honey-colored hair, blue eyes, and a fair complexion. She plans to be a writer of advertisements.

A. A. 4.

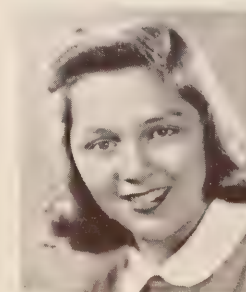

MAYE ANDERSON

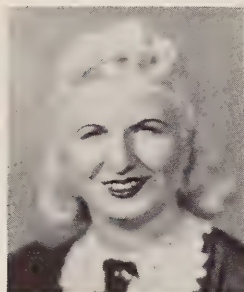

Hyannis

"The hand that hath made you fair hath made you good."

"Skeeto" has been one of the most outstanding members of our class. She has not only received excellent marks, but has participated in many outside activities. This year, because of her ability to do efficiently all tasks to which she is assigned and her high standing in classes, she was chosen D. A. R. Representative and was in quite a "Stew" about it.

SEVA ANESTIS

Hyannis

"She that was ever fair and never proud Gave tongue at will, and yet was never loud."

Whenever you feel the urge to listen to deep, impressive music, call upon Seva, for she will play away all your troubles in a delightful manner. Always able to do what is desired, Seva has been a valuable asset to her class. She plans to continue her education—field unspecified—this fall.

Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2; A. A. 4; Drum Major 1, 2; Christmas Chorus 4.

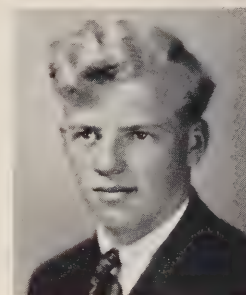

PAUL ATWOOD

West Barnstable

"Custom has made it in him a property of easiness."

Paul is a hard fighter on the gridiron, as well as in the classroom when he disagrees with his teachers. He is a member of the practical arts course, and excels in woodworking. Because of his fair judgment, he is frequently called upon to settle arguments. He plans to be a carpenter, a vocation for which he is indeed capable.

Football 2, 4; Boys' Basketball 4; A. A. 1, 2, 4; Barnacle Advertising Staff 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3; Track 4.

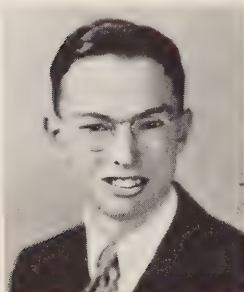

CARROLL BAKER

Hyannis

"Knowledge is king."

Possessed with a goodly share of knowledge and manners, Carroll has proved that "A friend in need is a friend indeed." Carroll's musical ability has been well appreciated in both the band and the orchestra. His flirtatious little incidents with Mrs. Hurst have livened many of our English classes this year.

Clipper 1, 2, 3; Forensics 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Barnacle Advertising Staff 4; Class Operetta 4; Patriot Staff 1; National Clerical Ability Test 3.

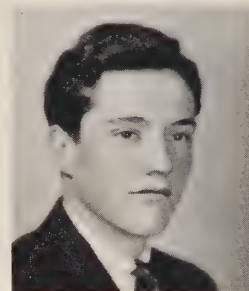

JAMES BARRY

Marstons Mills

"'Tis but a part we see, not the whole."

Although easy to get along with and always smiling, "Jimmie" is on the quiet side. Our Irishman is hardworking, quick blushing, and definitely not a lady's man. Baseball and the Clipper Staff were the only extra-curricular activities that interested "Jimmie," but he was chief "glue-slapper" for the musical comedy.

Clipper 3; Baseball 3, 4; A. A. 1, 2, 4; Barnacle Advertising Staff 4; Interclass Basketball 4; Class Operetta 4.

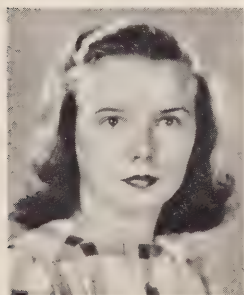

LOUISE BARTLETT

Hyannis

"Bassoon and I scampering by Over the world together."

"Weasie" has certainly supported our outside activities, for ever since she entered the band and the orchestra, she has been one of the most dependable members of the music clubs. Sincere and trustworthy, she listens to our sad tales and gives a small bit of advice in return. We have indeed found a good friend in Louise.

Boys' Glee Club Pianist 1; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Music Festival 1, 2, 3; A. A. 3, 4; Girls' Hockey 3; Class Operetta 4.

BEVERLY BASSETT

Hyannis

"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill."

"Bev" has long been the object of much praise because of her clever ability in making clothes. Her creative imagination will be of great assistance to her when she enters the school of her desire, the school of design.

Driving Course 4.

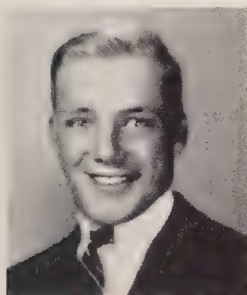

RALPH BASSETT

Hyannisport

*"In football he stops 'em;
In love he blocks 'em."*

Ralph, known to most of us as "Lily," entered our school from Wareham when he was a sophomore. His blond hair and quick blushes soon made him known to everyone. His work on the football field rendered him one of our outstanding stars. We feel sure that next year when Ralph attends St. John's Prep, he will continue his good work in football and track.

Football 2, 3, 4; A. A. 2, 3, 4; Barnacle Staff 4; Track 4.

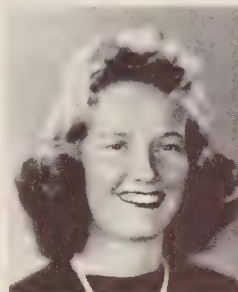

BARBARA BENJAMIN

Hyannisport

"A daughter of the gods, divinely tall, and most divinely fair."

"Benjie" was not with us in our freshman and sophomore years; nevertheless, she soon got acquainted. She receives considerable joshing about — Well, never mind, "Benjie", Hedy Lamarr takes a number nine shoe. Next year Barbara will be a student in St. Lawrence University in New York State.

Girls' Basketball 3; Girls' Hockey 3; A. A. 4; Minstrel Show 3.

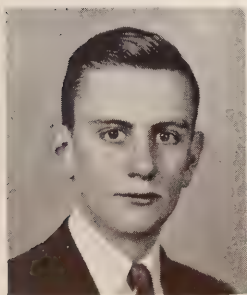

BRYANT BESSE

Hyannis

"It is better to play than do nothing."

After spending two years at Worcester Academy, Bryant returned to graduate with his B. H. S. classmates. In basketball he thrilled us by his headline-making deeds in the Sandwich contests. In class he has impressed us as a book critic and lover of poetry. "Bess," leaves no impressions, however, as to what he aspires to do next year.

Football 2; Basketball 4; Senior Dramatic Club 1, 2; Boys' Glee Club 4; Band 1, 2; A. A. 1, 2; Interclass Basketball 1, 2; J. H. Speaking Contest 1; Minstrel Show 2; Class Operetta 4.

MARILYN BLAGDEN

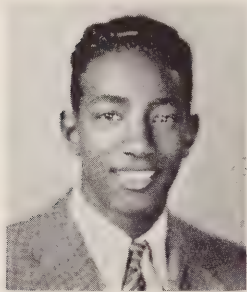

Hyannis

"She moves a goddess and she looks a queen."

Marilyn has original ideas and likes to express them, as she has shown us in sociology class. She has very good taste in choosing clothes and knows how to wear them. Her unusual sense of humor is appreciated by all her friends. These assets together with her interest in her work are important attributes for a secretary.

Clipper Typing Staff 3; Girls' Glee Club 3; Driving Course 4; Barnacle Typing Staff 4; A. A. 4.

MANUEL BRITO

Hyannis

"Slow and steady wins the race."

Manuel's speedy running in a certain race obtained for him the nickname, "Flash". His willingness to cooperate in and out of school and in any activity has found him many friends. His fighting spirit on the gridiron in his senior year made him an All-Cape Team Player. He also takes part in baseball, basketball, and track. He plans to enter an aeronautical school.

Football 1, 3, 4; Boys' Basketball 3; Interclass Basketball 4; Boys' Cooking Class 2; Track 2, 3, 4.

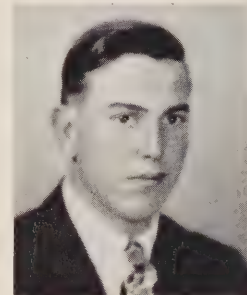

ROY BROWN

Hyannisport

"Strong of heart and mighty of limb."

"Brownie" was an outstanding member of the football team. He may have been quiet in class, but out on the football field he was the opposite; for he was usually the first to forget the rules when the opposition refused to play according to Hoyle. Roy plans to go to Wentworth Institute to take a course in engineering.

Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Golf 3; A. A. 2, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2; Track 3.

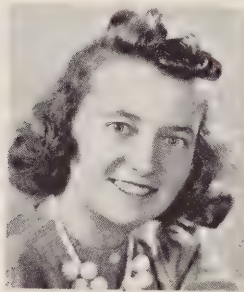

VIRGINIA BROWN

Hyannis

"The mirror of all courtesy."

"Ginny" has a certain charm which naturally attracts people. Her sociability and her lively conversation make her a welcomed classmate. Her smart clothes she chooses with good taste and a sense of simplicity. "Ginny" and her Joe have been a familiar couple at all the social events. She plans to enter Chamberlain next fall.

Senior Dramatic Club 2, 3; Girls' Glee Club 3; Class Treasurer 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Interclass Softball 2; Minstrel Show 1; Home Room Representative 1.

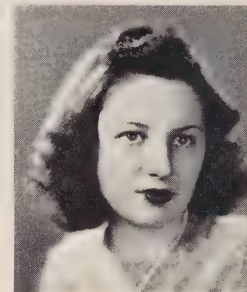

PHYLLIS BUSSIERE

Hyannis

"A bit of seriousness mixed with a dash of fun."

"Bussie" prefers athletics to study. Although she is small, one is made aware of her presence by her strikingly well-tailored clothes. Following the current trend, "Bussie" has brought forth some very stylish hand knitted sweaters, evidence of her taste and sense of values.

Girls' Basketball 1, 2, 3; Girls' Golf 3; Girls' Hockey 1, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 3; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Minstrel Show 1.

WILLIAM CHAFFIN

Hyannis

"A decent boldness ever meets with friends."

Unaccountable Billy has been a source of surprise from the time he met us in grade school until he popped up after nearly a year's absence to graduate with us this June. Whether for dancing the newest steps or borrowing a car from a person who has refused him a dozen times before, Billy has no equal. Though he has not said what he will do for a career, we think he would make a definite success selling fur overcoats to the Arabs of the Sahara.

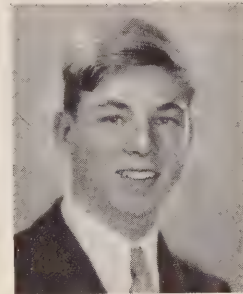

Boys' Basketball 4; Boys' Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Music Festival 1, 2, 3; Tennis 3 (Captain) 4; Prom Committee 3; Minstrel Show 2, 3.

FREDERICK CHILDS
Marstons Mills

"Quiet he seems, but is it true?"

"Fred's" classroom work, his letter-worthy athletic ability, and his impressive smile have made him a valuable addition to our senior class. In short, we feel that "Freddie" has a rather strong defense against the threats of life as well as a hidden offense which has just taken a long time showing itself.

Football 4; Baseball 4.

JACQUELINE BRADSTREET CLARK
Centerville

"Endowed with a quantity of reason, ability, and poise."

"Jackie" is enthusiasm personified. Her poise and ability were much in evidence in the twirling contest. She has expressed her ingenuity in many ways, such as in writing football songs that everyone enjoys. Perhaps her historically famous ancestors are responsible for her outstanding accomplishments.

Clipper 2, 3, 4; Senior Dramatic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 3; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; A. A. 3; Barnacle Staff 4; Girls' Basketball Manager 4; Minstrel Show 1; Drum Major 2, 3, 4; Junior Class Play 3, 4; Interclass Hockey 4.

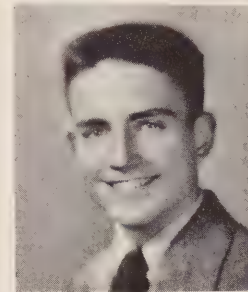

PAUL CLARK
Centerville

"I shall ne'er be ware of mine own wit until I break my shins against it."

Happy-go-lucky Paul is a first-class provider of entertainment. He is full of jokes, tricks, and impersonations, but is seriously interested in dramatics. He puts life into his classes and is always coming forth with one of his "new, bright" ideas. How did we ever get along without him before he came to our school two years ago?

Football 3, 4; Forensics 2; Senior Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3; Orchestra 2, 3; Band 2, 3; Interclass Basketball 4; Prom Committee 3; Minstrel Show 2, 3; Junior Class Play 2, 3, 4; Class Operetta 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Gym leader 4.

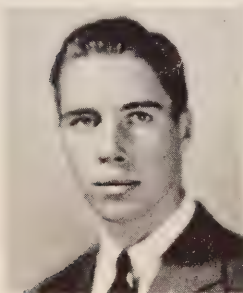

WILTON CROSBY
Osterville

"Men of few words are the best men."

Although "Bill" is inclined to be quiet, he has always been willing to help in any way he could. He has built many an airplane model and in spite of the angry frowns from his gallery of ancestors, Bill is going to desert water-ships for air-ships. He will take up both plane mechanics and piloting.

Football 2, 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 4.

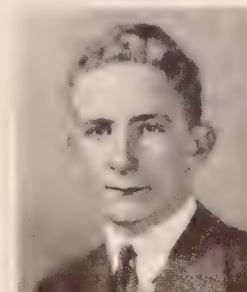

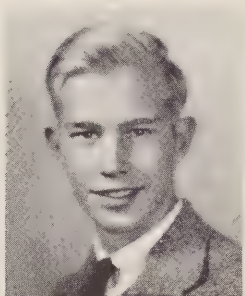

J. FREEMAN CROWELL, III
Hyannis

"Sigh no more, ladies. Sigh no more."

"Scuppy's" familiar grin is one of the things that will be missed by everyone after graduation. This year "Scuppy" became an outstanding member of the basketball team, proving that he can really do something, once he makes up his mind. He plans to lead the life of a sailor, wherein he'll surely uphold the navy tradition and have a girl in every port.

Clipper 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; Band 1; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Barnacle Advertising Staff 4; Prom Committee 3; Boys' Cooking Class 1, 2; Class Operetta 4.

HARRY DAVIDSON

West Barnstable

"Content with silence."

Harry has been one of our quieter classmates, a lad who has kept to himself through school years. We know that he is a good worker and a reliable one from what he so efficiently accomplished on the class operetta set. Harry says he plans to join the navy.

A. A. 4; Class Operetta 4.

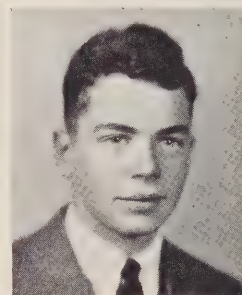

ROSS DAVIES

Hyannis

"Curiosity is one of the permanent and certain characteristics of a vigorous mind."

"Oggie" is interested in boats and is quick to answer any problems involving mechanics. Although his interests lie mainly in mechanics, he has also shown us that he is quite the lady-killer from what goes on in his homeroom. He does not as yet know his plans for next year, but he will probably enter national defense work in the mechanical field.

Band 1, 2, 3; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Operetta 4; Clipper 3; Prom Committee 3.

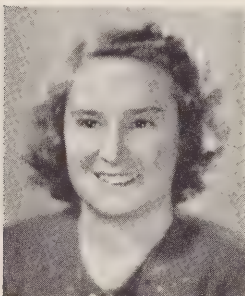

MARY ANN DOANE

Cotuit

"Gentle in manner, firm in reality."

Mary Ann's roguish eyes tell us of her spark, quiet though she seems to most of us. Her willingness to help others is evident wherever help is needed. Mary Ann is interested in designing and would like to take up this work after graduation. However, if she doesn't do this, she would like to travel West — "Go West — Mary Ann!"

Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Class Operetta 4.

DOROTHY DOTTRIDGE

Cotuit

*"Though I'm not splenitive and rash,
I have something in me dangerous."*

Dorothy's masterful "Daisy Dolittle" broadcasting job reveals her hidden possibilities for acting. Although she feels low and has to take "Doc's" care to relieve her at times, she is ready and willing to join in the fun. Incidentally, if a good sense of humor and secretarial work have anything in common, then Dot's well adapted for what's ahead.

Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Driving Course 4; I. F. Club 2.

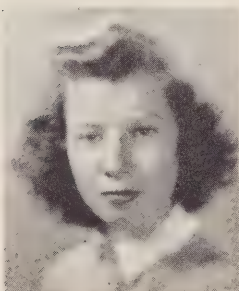

JANICE DREW

Hyannis

"Once a friend, always a friend."

"Liz" is liked and respected by all who know her. She has a large collection of popular records, and almost every Saturday night, plays hostess to a gang of "rug cutters." Some day soon, when you pick up your "phone", Janice's cheery voice will greet you with, "Number, please."

JOHN DREW

Hyannis

"A plain blunt man."

Captain "Gubber" of the basketball crew will long be remembered for sparking B. H. S. to past-season honors at the Cape-Islands Championship Tourney. His three years' baseball service speaks for itself. In school, however, John's studying time was somewhat impaired by his library meanderings. These had a purpose, nevertheless: perhaps in planning those much-heralded travels to take place next year.

RAY DUTHIE

Osterville

Oh, she is blithe, and bonnie, and gay."

Ray, one of those "bonnie" lassies for which Scotland is famous, has a charming smile that displays a sweet nature. Modest and poised, Ray has shown talent in several directions: she is an accomplished violinist, a good actress, and a student of high standing. She will go to Northfield Seminary next year and after that will begin training as a nurse.

ALICE DUTRA

Hyannis

"The serene and quiet eye all our follies sees."

Alice came to B. H. S. in her senior year from Monson Academy, and many of us have not really known her; however, those who have, know her pleasing manner and friendliness. Those in her typing class are familiar with her prolonged and frequent giggle.

Activities at Monson Academy: Senior Dramatic Club 3; Girls' Glee Club 3; Secretary of Girls' Club 2, 3.

MARY ELDREDGE

Hyannis

"My heart is fixed."

Mary hasn't changed her mind about love since her freshman year. "Tish"-Tish". Constancy must be her motto. She has been a member of the band for five years, during two of which she added color and beauty to her drum major's uniform. Mary hasn't, as yet, made any definite plans for next year.

HENRY FORTES

Hyannisport

"It is the quiet worker who succeeds."

Henry seems to be rather sorry to be leaving B. H. S. this year. At least he says that school is a very good place. Although he appears serious much of the time, his knowing grin and bird imitations prove that he knows the humorous side of life, too.

Football 2, 3; Boys' Glee Club 3; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 4; Interclass Basketball 2.

JOHN FORTES

"I am sure care's an enemy to life."

John, who always has a joke or an argument for his friends, is often the center of activity at the school lunch table. John joined the army in his senior year, but his patriotic spirit wasn't appreciated, and he was rejected because of his extreme youth! He is interested in aeronautics, but would rather follow a business career.

EMILY GRACE

Hyannis

"Young in limbs; in judgment old."

"Em" is one of the class's best jitterbugs. She certainly can swing that "jumpin' jive"! Although "Em" has been a good academic student, she still has had time to indulge her interest in art. Emily wants to attend a school for nursing next year.

Girls' Basketball 1; Hockey 1; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Operetta 4.

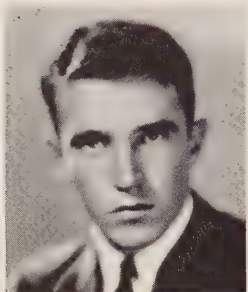

EDMUND HARLOW

Cotuit

"But say the word and I'll oppose it."

Ted's curiosity to learn the answers has often led him into lengthy arguments; however, when it comes to football, this member of the All-Cape Team is ready to fight and hold his ground. Always neat appearing, Ted will make a handsome cadet at Norwich, where he will enroll this fall to study mechanical engineering.

MIRIAM HINCKLEY

Barnstable

"The sound of a sigh is slightly heard, but the lilt of a laugh rings far."

"Hinckle" has been a busy worker for our class and the Student Council. Although often worried about some minor thing, she has a merry laugh that is heard both in and out of school. She is frequently late and always in a rush. She will certainly be busy next fall when she enters Skidmore, preparatory to taking up nursing.

BETTY HOLDEN

Hyannisport

"Variety's the very spice of life."

Betty is an excellent athlete, proficient in tennis, diving, and basketball. When not taking an active part in sports herself, Betty has enthusiastically led the cheering. Among her many dates and other outside attractions, she doesn't have too much time for study. She plans to become a hair dresser.

IVAR JOHNSON

Centerville

"I'll not budge an inch."

Ivar, commonly known as "Squarehead", is indeed a persistent Swede. He proved his worth on the football field, and was elected to the Student Council in his senior year. The sea holds an interest for him; since he belongs to the Sea Scouts, he has high hopes of entering the Massachusetts Nautical School.

MARJORIE JOHNSON

Hyannis

"There's language in her eye, her cheek, her lip."

"Margie" may be small, but she certainly has plenty of energy — always planning something or going somewhere. She is one of our "cutest" classmates; and everyone in the class has, at one time or other, been on the receiving end of one of her pranks. "Margie's" plans for the future are as yet indefinite, but we know that whatever she does will be exciting.

Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Bank Director 1.

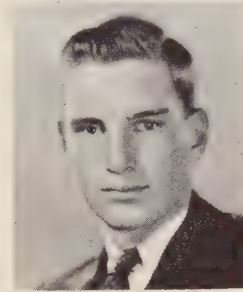

PHILIP JONES

Marstons Mills

"And I believe in Almighty God and Preach His Gospel here."

"Deacon" Jones coming into his homeroom, greeting his classmates with, "Praise de Lord," is a familiar sight. Phil is always ready for any fun that comes his way, and is one of those boat-building boys that can never stay after school for detention. For all his boatbuilding, "Deacon" found time to join the golf team every spring.

Golf Team 2, 3, 4; Track 1; A. A. 1, 2.

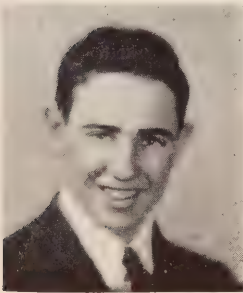

PAUL KEAVY

Hyannis

*"A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays
And confident tomorrows."*

Paul has spent much of his time working on the newspaper and, even if he has not participated in many school activities, he has shown an ardent interest in them. Every Monday he bowls with his league and amazes many with his high scores. He plans to continue his work in the newspaper next year. That's right, Paul. Remember that Lincoln started at the bottom.

Boys' Glee Club 2; Band 2, 3; A. A. 2, 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2.

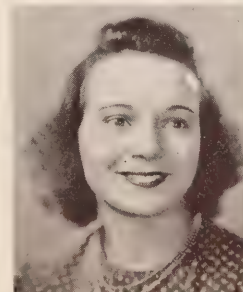

VIOLA LAMPI

West Barnstable

*"We grant, although she had much wit,
She was very shy of using it."*

An able seamstress as well as a good cook is Viola. Her work in the Household Arts Division reveals her remarkable ability as a homemaker. However, don't be led astray, for Viola likes sports, especially bowling, just as much as you or I; moreover, her wittiness enlivens many a dull moment.

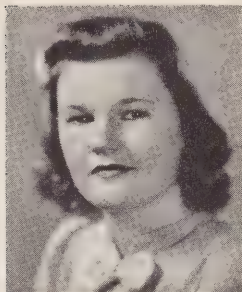

Chairman Candy Committee 4.

MARIE LEBEL

Osterville

*"From the crown of her head
To the sole of her foot,
She is all mirth."*

Her fun-loving eyes and almost habitually helpful manner make Marie rank high on our list of class leaders and friends. A member of the hockey team for three years, of the basketball team for four years, and captain of the basketball team this last year, Marie has earned the reputation of an all-round good sport and companion.

ANDREA LEONARD

Osterville

"A merry heart that laughs at care."

"Andy" is a fun-loving blond who makes the most of her good times. She is quick to become angry, but also quick to forgive. She bubbles over with friendship and contentment, and her eyes shine with a promise for the future. But don't mistake, she has her serious side, as one glance at her excellent report card reveals.

Girls' Golf 4; Senior Dramatic Club 3, 4; Girls' Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Driving Course 4; J. H. Speaking Contest 1.

WESLEY LEWIS

Hyannis

"For courtesy wins women, all as well as valor may."

Besides being an industrious member of our class of '41, "Wes" has maintained a position as usher in the neighborhood theatre, where, incidentally, he looks very much the part in his blue uniform. Some of us had the impression that he was the quiet type, but "Andy" Leonard is not quite so sure.

Boys' Cooking Class 3; Class Operetta 4.

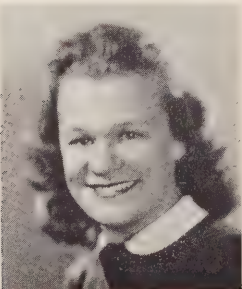

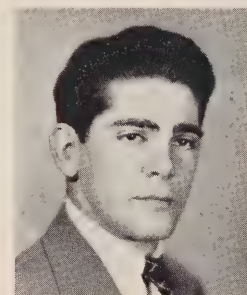

HARRY LONG

Hyannis

"For manners are not idle, but the fruit of loyal nature and of noble mind."

Harry in his "model A" is a familiar sight to denizens of Hyannis. He is known to all his friends as "Lucky." Harry's quiet way and good manners are liked by all who know him. Although he is a loyal supporter of B. H. S., he spends most of his time in Yarmouth. Harry intends to take a course in aviation.

NANCY LORANGE

Cotuit

*"A girl who can work, a girl who can play,
A girl who is a good friend every day."*

Nancy's naturally wavy blonde hair is admired by every girl in the class. With her quick wit and ready smile, Nancy is the center of attraction in any group. She wants to be a telephone operator next year.

Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Driving Course 4; Cheerleader 2, 3, 4; Bank Director 1, 2; Class Operetta 4.

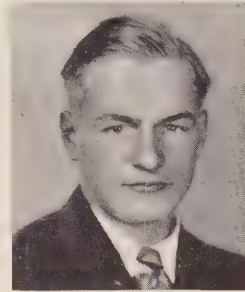

WILLIAM LUOTO

Barnstable

"O, how full of briars is this working-day world!"

"The Mad Russian" is a member of the vocational boat building course. He is more interested in clam digging and boats than any scholastic pursuits. This lack of interest in studies has caused his teachers and Bill himself many agonizing moments. Next year, however, he will be able to cast aside at last all worries of school and settle down to a fisherman's bliss.

A. A. 2, 3; Track 4.

LILLIAN MacISAAC

Centerville

*"Pretty to walk with
Witty to talk with Pleasant too, to think on."*

We will remember "Rusty" for her red curls, so prominently in our midst since Junior High days. Since nothing happens for miles around without Lil's finding out the inside story, we think she is quite right in deciding to be a reporter.

J. H. Speaking Contest 1; Clipper 3; A. A. 4; Barnacle Staff 4.

MARION MAKI

West Barnstable

"Like Mona Lisa, neither smile nor word revealed her mind."

Those little tete-a-tete's with her own intimate circle in the rear of the homeroom during seventh period show that Marion has made abundant little feminine observations during the day. What she says so briefly and pointedly in class and the way she bustles hurriedly about reveal that under her usually taciturn exterior lies a vigorous, energetic nature fitted for efficient use of her business course training.

Clipper Typing Staff 3; Barnacle Typing Staff 4.

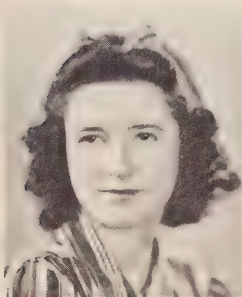

LOIS MARR

Hyannis

"The unspoken word never does harm."

Although Lois is very reserved, she is a source of fun to those who know her. Her earnestness as a student in art is attested by the fact that last year she won second prize in the Barnstable Tercentenary Drawing Exhibit, and also, first prize in a recent poster contest. Lois expects to attend an art school in New Bedford next fall.

Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Class Operetta 4.

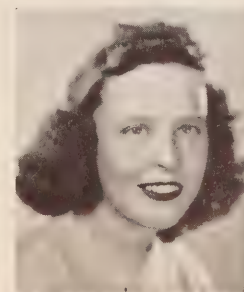

FLORENCE MATSON

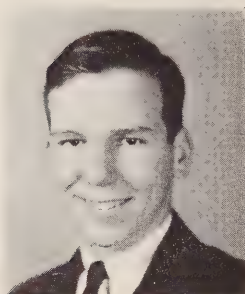

Cotuit

"Wearing the white flower of a blameless life."

Florence has always been one of the quiet members of our class, yet she is rich in friendliness. Her ability and initiative in the business course should help her in her future work, in whatever field.

Clipper Typing Staff 3.

CHALMERS MILNE

Osterville

"Faint heart ne'er won fair maid."

"Scotty" is a well-known figure about school, his pleasant nature making him a popular character with everyone. Chalmers participates in football, track, and basketball with sportsmanlike vigor. During his two years as class president, Chalmers has shown good leadership and will continue to do so in years to come.

Football 2, 3, 4; Boys' Basketball 3, 4; Boys' Glee Club 3, 4; Class President 3, 4; Ring Committee 3; Class Operetta 4; Track 3, 4;

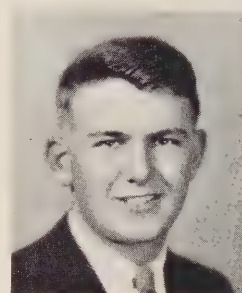

JOHN MONROE

Centerville

*"Be bolde, be bolde, and everywhere be bolde,
A bolde bad man."*

John was affectionately known to the football squad as "Skull". Mr. Shields always considered him good "tackle meat". Although quite vicious during a football game, "Skull" has a good sense of humor and is a born sportsman. A ready grin, along with the skill he has acquired in practical arts, will help him make his place in the world.

Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Cooking Class 1, 2.

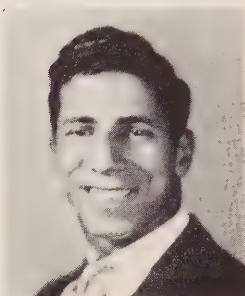

ROGER MONTEIRO

Cotuit

"How shall we rank thee on glory's page?"

"Rog" has been a godsend to our athletic teams. As a senior in football, he was team captain and winner of the Hinkle Trophy. Baseball found him a capable guardian of the hot corner. In the school agricultural department Roger rated so highly that his present placement employers already seek his services for next year.

Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Interclass Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Future Farmers of America 2, 3, 4.

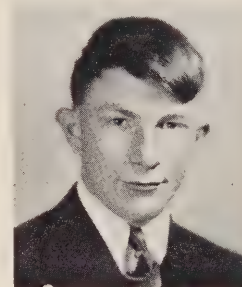

CLIFTON MORIN

Hyannis

"I have a trick worth two of that."

"Red's" lively personality has acquired for him a large group of friends. According to the crew of "Phinney's Mary," you can generally find him in the midst of either a boat or motor discussion, explaining the "why's and wherefore's" of diesel engines, electric turbines, and other machinery necessary for a ship's motion. Despite his quick temper, "Red" will always be the center of attraction among his sailor acquaintances.

Band 1.

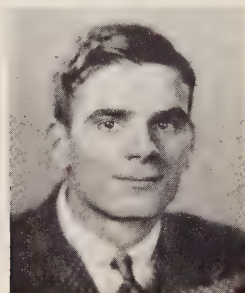

JOSEPH NEVES

Barnstable

*"Far from the maddening crowd's ignoble strife
His sober wishes never learned to stray."*

Joe has plenty of determination, as evidenced by his square jaw and unflinching eye. He has participated in sports, especially basketball, at which he plays a steady game. Joe is the dark silent type, but when he has something to say, it is worthwhile. His hobby is photography; his ambition is to become a pharmacist.

Football 4; Basketball 3, 4.

ELWINNA NICKERSON

Barnstable

"Scant of word, but eloquent of silent thought."

"Winnie" is a quiet and unassuming member of the business group. She really has an excellent sense of humor, but very few realize this fact, since she is so silent in school. "Winnie" would like to obtain a position in a business office after graduation.

Orchestra 1, 2, 3.

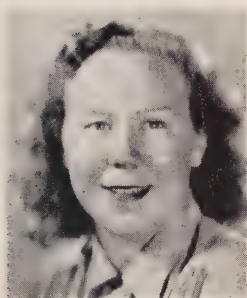

RUTH NICKULA

West Barnstable

"With my banjo on my knee."

"Skippy" is our singing cowgirl from "'way out West" — West Barnstable. There is nothing Ruthie wants more than to continue her career on the radio. We think, however, she is already assured of her success if all the fan mail she receives is any criterion of her merit. "Kid" must certainly be proud of his singing cowgirl of W. O. C. B.

Girls' Hockey 1; Orchestra 1; Girls' Basketball 2; Minstrel Show 2, 3; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Class Operetta 4.

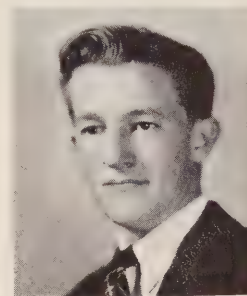

RUDOLF OLANDER

Centerville

"Much may be said on both sides."

"Rudy" takes his boatbuilding seriously and will probably make it his future trade. He has a cheerful greeting ready for you each morning and drives steadily along at his studies. Outside of school he enjoys a good game of cards, accompanied by the bitter weed. Here's to an excellent workman.

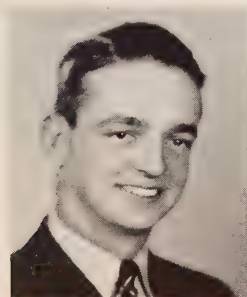

GORDON OLIVER

Hyannis

"Hold the fort; I'm coming."

"Lindsey" is a regular fellow. He makes friends easily and likes to have many chums around him. Often his entering into a bowling match has decided at the start victory for his team. Besides bowling well, he cuts a fancy figure on roller skates and is respected as one of the most efficient craftsmen in his boat-building group.

BETSEY ANN PERRY

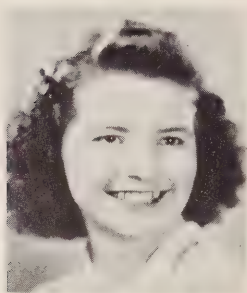

Barnstable

*"Live while you live, the epicure would say,
And seize the pleasures of the present day."*

"Bepe" is an extrovert in the true sense of the word. She is always looking for something new and different to occupy her spare moments, nor does she waste them on such things as studies. She amazes us all by her daring trial of any new style. What her plans are for next year nobody knows, but we venture to say that they won't be dull.

Girls' Glee Club 4; Class Operetta 4; Football Dance Committee 4.

WILMA PERRY

Centerville

"Come, give us a taste of your quality."

Since "Wil" has long been interested in both the distinguished art of ballet dancing and in nursing, one of these vocations will claim our Titian-haired classmate. Whichever it be, her fellow-workers will find in her a quiet-voiced, steady, and reliable friend.

Minstrel Show 1.

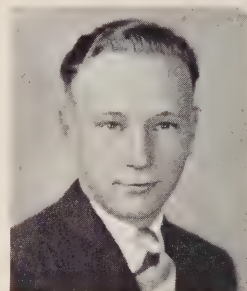

TARMO RANTA

West Barnstable

"Creeping like a snail, unwillingly to school."

"Tud" has a hard time deciding which he likes best, his boat work or his hunting; however, he usually finds time for both of them. He is one of the best boatbuilders in our school and has a host of friends won by his easy-going good nature.

Interclass Basketball 1; Interclass Softball 1; Vocational Boat-building 2, 3, 4.

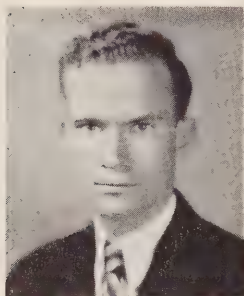

THOMAS RENNIE

Cotuit

"Much may be made of a Scotchman if he be caught young."

"Tom" is a thrifty Scotchman; he had to be in order to carry the same battered green lunchbox to school for twelve years. The Scotchman was one of the more popular fellows in the class. He was President of the Student Council, and excellent worker on various committees, and played basketball, baseball, and his traditional golf.

CARL RYBERG

Centerville

"Oh, the gallant fisher's life!It is the best of any.'Tis full of pleasure, void of strife,And 'tis beloved by many."

Amiable Carl is an ardent sportsman. If not hunting, he may surely be found trapping or fishing. A valuable member of the Future Farmers of America, Carl is always ready to lend a helping hand; moreover, he does his work quietly but thoroughly. Indeed, dependability, thoughtfulness, and consideration for others are Carl's characteristic traits.

F. F. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

JEAN RYDER

Cotuit

"Buxom, blithe and debonair."

"Becker Trained, Better Trained," is Jean's motto as graduation nears. She has sung in the Glee Club and has plugged away at the business course in a quiet way most of her high school years. However, all indications point to a successful start toward her secretarial goal.

Clipper 3; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Driving Course 4; Minstrel Show 1, 2; Class Operetta 4.

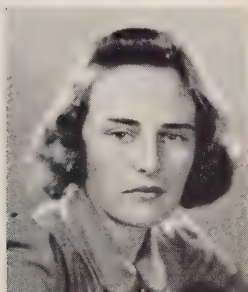

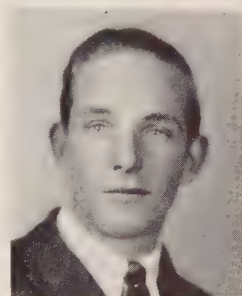

EDWARD SAVERY

Cotuit

"I have an exposition of sleep come upon me."

"Eddie's" difficulties with his car have been the amusement of the agricultural course boys for many a month. His interest in his vocation is keen: he is President of the Future Farmers of America and was one of the first boys to be employed on placement this year. In class "Sivry" has been notably silent until a convincing thought struck him; then he was forceful indeed in expounding it with all the dogged persistence of a Farm Bloc senator.

Football 1, 2; Interclass Basketball 1, 2; F. F. A. 2, 3, (President) 4.

ELAINE SCHOFIELD

Centerville

"Good nature and good sense are her companions."

Elaine's vivacity, tact, and friendliness make her a popular classmate. Her frequent spasms of laughter, especially with "Margie" Johnson, have been heard in many classrooms. We just got a "tip" that Elaine makes a charming waitress in the summer. Her cheerfulness and ever-constant smile should aid her greatly in this work.

Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Class Operetta 4.

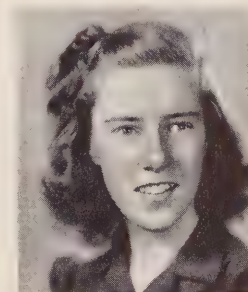

BARBARA SCUDDER

Hyannis

"I live in the crowd of jollity."

"Scud" is probably best known for her interest in athletics: basketball, tennis, hockey, sailing, and riding around in that car of hers, an athletic feat in itself. Her clothes have been a fashion plate for us all. Not only will we remember her outside interests and her car, but we will remember "Scud" herself, a chum indeed.

ESTHER SCUDDER

Osterville

"Thy voice is celestial melody."

Everyone is sure to find "Teta" pleasing and interesting. She is perhaps the most happy-go-lucky member of the class of 1941. Her natural peaches-and-cream complexion and her laughing eyes enhance her friendly attitude. Broadmindedness is one of her strong points. There is never a frown on her brow, for her remedy of gloominess is to sing troubles away. Esther intends to further develop her voice by advanced study.

ROGER SCUDDER

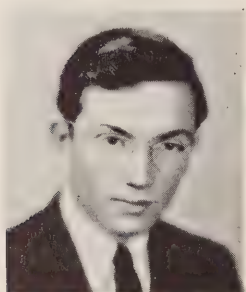

Cotuit

"The force of his own merit makes his way."

"Dago" will always be the same likeable fellow. His ability to sing helped much in making a success of our musical comedy. Roger has taken part in several types of athletics, particularly baseball. Business administration will find him an able executive. As Assistant Editor of the Barnacle, he has shown a businesslike trait of getting things done.

PAUL SETHARES

Hyannis

"The secret of success is constancy to purpose."

"Greek" became better known to everyone when he displayed his ability at basketball at the Cape Cod Tournament. He has been an asset to the basketball team for three years. Paul is also interested in music; he plays in the band and hopes to be a composer some day. We are sure that he will be one if he continues to be as persevering as he has been in the past.

ALICE SLAVIN

Hyannis

"Happy in this; she is not so old but she may learn."

Although Alice has always had high marks, she's found time, somehow, to knit those good looking sweaters and to make us laugh by saying an unintentionally funny remark. Alice says she'd like to study chemistry and be a help to the scientific world. However, we think she would do well at anything; remember how she surprised us all as a member of the debating team which won the state championship this year?

STANLEY SPARRE

Barnstable

"Art is Power."

For a very good reason Stanley has acquired the name, "Bunky", as his father will tell. Stanley joined our class in his senior year and has quietly become one of us. He transferred to B. H. S. from Lawrence High School in Falmouth. He excels in art and plans to go to an art school for further training.

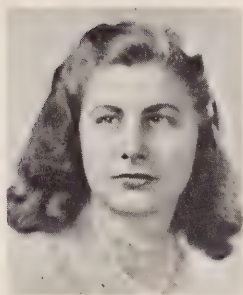

PHYLLIS STARCK

Osterville

*"Here am I; from care I'm free.
Why aren't they all contented like me?"*

Phyl's cheerful countenance has enlivened for her circle of friends many an otherwise tragic school day. She has entered into a great number of varied school activities and has made an outstanding record in them all. We have admired her great and versatile zest for life, feeling too that the ease with which she does many different things well—from painting to vocal music—is an indication of an untouched reserve of talent which will appear strikingly in her future career as a commercial artist.

ROBERT STARCK

Centerville

"Let him pass as a man."

"Bob" doesn't have much to say, but we have found that there are some busy and interesting thoughts going on behind that silence. Many times we've seen his cheerful grin at the Centerville gas station. Here's hoping he'll always wear that pleasing smile.

Basketball 3, 4; Class President 2; Interclass Basketball 3, 4; Captain of Baseball Team 4.

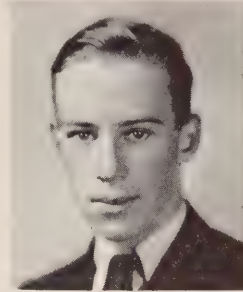

HOLMES STEVENS

West Barnstable

*"For me, my craft is sailing on,
Through mist today, clear seas anon,
What e'er the final harbor be,
'Tis good to sail upon the sea!"*

So interested in sailing is "Bubbie" that he seriously plans to make it his life's work and intends to enter the merchant marine this fall. Aside from boats, he enjoys good novels. Characteristic of "Bubbie" is the perseverance to work hard on a subject until he has achieved his aim. If ever you need practical advice or want to be taught the rudiments of the sea — seek out "Bubbie".

Interclass Basketball 1; Class Operetta Staging Committee 4.

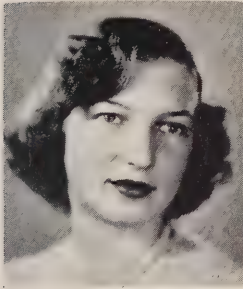

SYLVIA SUNDELIN

West Barnstable

*"The most manifest sign of wisdom
Is continued cheerfulness."*

Sylvia has continually received honors and is very painstaking with her work. Although she is quiet in school, she is quite the opposite when she is out among her immediate friends. She certainly lives up to the tradition that Finns are attractive, neat, and polite. Popular in her unobtrusive way, Sylvia ranks as the outstanding socialite of West Barnstable.

ANNIE WAHLOWICK

Centerville

"A little body often harbors a great soul."

A demure and quiet little girl is our Annie. Small in size, but large in friendliness, she should be able to fulfill her future ambitions. Annie is greatly interested in surgical nursing and doctoring, an interest which she intends to further next year.

Orchestra 1; Minstrel Show 1, 2.

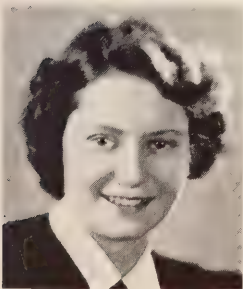

ROSE ANNA WALSH

Osterville

*"Oh, blest with temper whose unclouded ray,
Can make tomorrow cheerful as today."*

"Posy" has a smile and a cheerful word for everyone. "Posy" recently wrote two radio scripts for the Business Department's radio program, which proved so excellent that they may be published. She has already started her secretarial career by being class secretary for three years and very capably handling her duties.

GORDON WEST

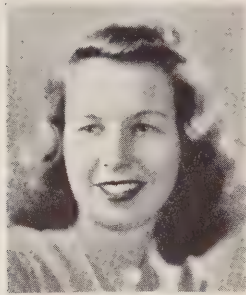

Cotuit

"Napoleon was no giant, either!"

Although small of stature, "Molehill", alias Gordon West, is quick of mind and action. We have all seen his tactics on the football field, and a few have seen his boxing abilities. At present he is lending himself, humor and all, to the F. F. A. No one seems to know what the future has in store for him.

Football 3, 4; F. F. A. 3, 4; Clipper Short Story Prize 2.

BARBARA WHEELER

West Barnstable

"Who hasn't flirted at least a little?"

Barbara is noted for distracting the boys from their studies but not intentionally, of course! She is especially fond of dancing, singing, and modeling clothes and does very well in all three fields. She joins in any exciting activity and is always amusing her group with the latest jokes. Her hearty laugh is always welcome at school.

GLADYS WHITTEN

Barnstable

"Her talk was like a stream."

Gladys plans to enter Wilfred Beauty Academy and then open a beauty shop of her own. Her engaging chatter will assure her of many steady customers. Although Gladys has been with us only a year, her charming smile and her never-ending talk have become the mainstay of many otherwise silent classes. From what we glean from idle conversation it appears that Gladys's main interest is a blonde Romeo from Barnstable.

ALBERT WIINIKAINEN

West Barnstable

"Oft have we seen him at the peep of dawn."

"Ebo," hard-working but fun-loving "Ebo," spends most of his out-of-school time on his beloved farm, tending his garden, milking cows, feeding the chickens. A man of independent mind, he has never hesitated to state his views forcefully in class, not always waiting for his dear teacher's permission to do so.

F. F. A. 2, 3, 4; Vice-President of F. F. A. 4.

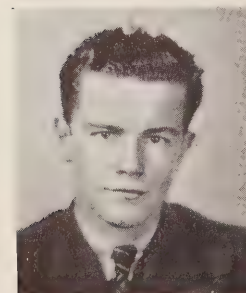

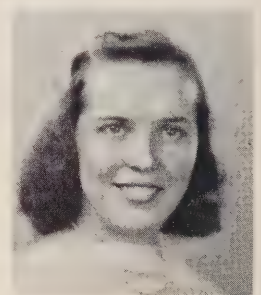

OLGA WIINIKAINEN

West Barnstable

"The daintiest last to make the end most sweet."

Olga is not only neat, polite, and happy—but she is indeed a good pal. She hasn't definitely decided what she is going to do next year, but training for a nurse appeals most to her. With her sense of humor and wit, Olga should cheer all her patients.

Girls' Glee Club 3.

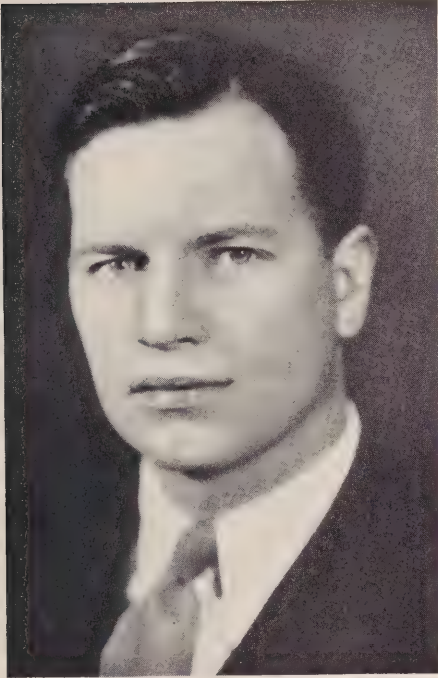

JAMES WOODBURY

Hyannis

"It is better for a young man to blush, than to turn pale."

One would never know that "Jimmie" was in a classroom until he lights up with one of those beautiful big blushes. He rarely fails to get his home work done, but he has not participated much in outside activities. In spite of recent experiments he does not intend to be a brewer, but rather a bookkeeper.

Acknowledgments

THE Class of Nineteen Forty-one expresses appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Wilbur E. Cheever for showing us the way over many obstacles and gloomy moments, and to Mr. Frederick M. Hodge for his help and friendship as our principal.

SAYINGS of OUR CLASS PHILOSOPHERS

SCHOOL LIFE

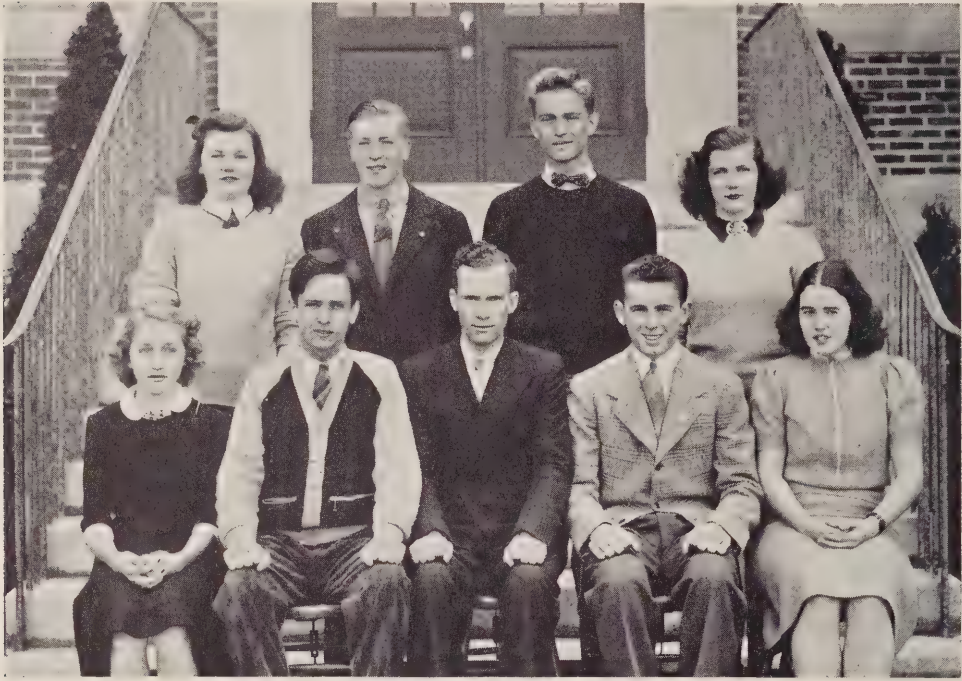

THE CLIPPER STAFF

THE CLIPPER

THE CLIPPER, under the advisership of Miss Marion Brink, is our high school magazine which is issued three times a year: November, February, and June. Miss Bertha Newcomb was again the advertising adviser of this publication. The thirty-two members of the staff and their efficient adviser have been well rewarded by their excellent issues of the publication.

This year the Clipper was awarded by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association the third prize in the senior high group having an enrollment of 300 to 800 pupils.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

THE Student Council of Barnstable High School is an intermediary body between the students and the faculty. On the Council there are four seniors, three juniors, and two sophomores.

Under the advisership of Mr. Bria K. Connor, this year the Council attended a convention in Rockland, presented Mal Cameron, the magician, at an assembly, and sponsored an A. A. dance.

MUSIC

At Barnstable High School the program of music, under its Director, Samuel Griffiths, comprises both vocal and instrumental classes. Vocal music is studied in grades seven, eight, nine, and ten. Music appreciation is introduced in the ninth grade course. Instrumental music is available through both junior and senior orchestras, and the band.

The senior orchestra this year has been active at school affairs. For the first time in four years, it presented a concert, with Bedrick Vaska, world-famed cellist as guest artist. Our classmate, Ray Duthie, was concert mistress. This was the first public appearance of the orchestra this year and met with huge success.

In keeping with its past performances, the band again lent its stirring music at the football games and at assemblies. Much of the fine talent of the band has been lost in past graduations; therefore, it is at present, rather inexperienced. Since the younger students are participating enthusiastically, it is hoped that again high talent will be built up in the band in the near future.

The glee clubs, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Barton, have been much smaller this year, but still up to par. The Girls' Glee Club has made three public appearances, the first at a P. T. A. meeting in December, and the second at a P. T. A. program at Bass River on April 14, 1941. The well-blended voices of the Girls' Glee Club were also heard at the Christmas assembly and over station WOCB on two occasions.

We may well be proud of the achievements of the Barnstable High School musical groups, for they show that both participants and the student body generally have developed a high standard of social and esthetic pleasures.

SENIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

DRAMATICS

UNDER the direction of Wilbur Cheever, dramatics have developed into an active extra-curricular interest. Through the Junior Dramatic Club, directed by Miss Evelyn Banning, the students are well trained in dramatic ability before they enter the senior high club.

The Senior Dramatic Club meets once a week. At the meetings short skits are presented by various members and programs on the art of scenery, staging, lighting, and make-up are also arranged.

In addition to these meetings, the club this year presented at Christmas time, "The Music Box", a modern morality play. Besides this presentation the club aided the senior class in "The Count and the Coed", a musical comedy, and made "One Mad Night", the annual junior class play, a success. An innovation this year has been the technical study of radio broadcasting during meetings. Most of the club members have gone on the air at least once in the Thursday programs over W.O.C.B.

In a lighter vein the club has enjoyed a Christmas party and a beach picnic.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE MEMBERS

DEBATING AND PUBLIC SPEAKING

THIS year as in previous years B. H. S. was host to the Southeastern District forensic contest. Upholding the school's public speaking traditions were Bruce Allen, Joseph James, Louise Holden, Barbara Horne, Angus Perry, Joseph Lebel, Alice Slavin, Marshall Dranetz, and Harold Malchman.

At the state tournament held at Northampton, Barnstable's debating team, coached by Mr. Broadbent, placed first. This standing made the team eligible for the National Contest at Lexington, Kentucky. Not satisfied with one honor, B. H. S. also won first place in Dramatic Declamation through Joseph James's excellent presentation of "The Tell-Tale Heart", by Poe.

The debating team withstood four rounds of competition at Lexington, while Joseph James, under Miss Clark's guidance, braved three contests of stiff competition. The school has, indeed, reason to be proud of its public speaking record.

FOOTBALL

OUR football season in 1940 netted us six triumphs, three defeats, and two scoreless ties — both of them with Falmouth! The record was as good as that of the previous year, though it was made to appear better by the title of All-Cape Champion, earned through the defeat of Nantucket in the last game of the season.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

OUR squad this year up to the time of the Cape and Islands Tournament, was "just another team". The Tournament served as the change of tide in the B. H. S. basketball schedule. Captain Drew spurred his team to three hard-fought victories over Wellfleet, Provincetown, and Orleans teams that had previously defeated us. We lost the Cape Championship on the very last night of the contest, possibly because the boys were exhausted from playing the game night after night before meeting their final opponents, the fresh Edgartown team. Coach Bearse may well be proud of the way his team came up from behind during the season.

BASEBALL

AN opening victory over a veteran Chatham nine and a loss to our Falmouth rivals is Barnstable's record to date. However, with Captain Starck leading the pitching corps again this year and having the strong positions handled by such seasoned performers as Scudder, Childs, Monroe, and Drew, the outlook is far from gloomy.

Coach Taft has the squad in good condition for this year's stiff schedule, which includes games with Falmouth, Bourne, Yarmouth, Provincetown, Sandwich, and a strong off-Cape Plymouth aggregation.

GOLF

COACH BEARSE had good reason to expect much of this year's golf team with the return of veterans Tom Rennie and Philip Jones. In Barnstable's first game the underclassmen making up the remainder of the squad showed to advantage, bolstering already high hopes for the season as well as adding promise for teams in the coming years.

A victory over Vocational has been accomplished to date; and home-and-home games with New Bedford, Taunton, Dartmouth, and Fairhaven remain to fill out a hard nine-game schedule.

SPRING TRACK

A SQUAD of twenty-eight boys comprises the track enthusiasts this spring. The team is handicapped for lack of veterans in field events. The senior members are Paul Clark, two-twenty and four-forty runner; Chalmers Milne, broad jump, two-twenty, and one-hundred-yard runner; Manuel Brito, half miler; "Bill" Crosby, disc thrower; Ralph Bassett, shot putter; and Paul Atwood, pole vaulter. Since all these seniors are consistent point gainers, the burden of the season's efforts will fall mostly on them.

On meeting Fairhaven High School for the first encounter, Barnstable was defeated, but looked well in defeat, for our boys placed a close second in most events. Howard Maki was the star of the day, coming in first in the half-mile run. On Saturday, May 10, Barnstable defeated the Orleans cinder men decisively.

Later the squad competes in the Cape Cod Track Meet. The season will end with the trip to Boston University, where our boys match skill with New England's best in high school track.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

IN spite of the fact that the entire first team for Barnstable girls' hockey was lost in 1940 by graduation, the inexperienced but gallant squad ended the season with only two losses. Under the capable coaching of Katherine Nehubian and leadership of Captain Drusilla Daniel the hockey team came through the season with seven victories.

BARNSTABLE HIGH SCHOOL

ACTIVITIES ASSOCIATION

THE present Activities Association was established in 1935 by Mr. Knight for the purpose of financing extra-curricular activities not sponsored by a class. This organization pays the costs of our athletic program and helps those activities which are not self-supporting. Its funds are secured largely from the sale of the "Activities Ticket" and from collections at football and basketball games.

The "Activities Ticket" this year was sold for two dollars and entitled the holder to attend all home football, baseball, basketball, track, and hockey games, a musical concert, a dance, three issues of the Clipper, and a play. The cost of the ticket was only one-fourth the actual cost of separate tickets for each admission and thus saved the student a great deal financially. The association also has broadened the cultural interests of the students and has made performances successful which might have otherwise failed.

The funds of the Activities Association are drawn upon to finance debating, motion pictures at assemblies, and part of the dramatics. They have also helped pay the transportation of pupils to contests and distant meetings of student organizations.

The goal of this association is to achieve co-operation between the students and teachers and to solve the problem of meeting the countless incidental expenses which every school has in its extra-curricular program.

NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

College of Liberal Arts

Offers young men a broad program of college subjects serving as a foundation for the understanding of modern culture, social relations, and technical achievement. The purpose of this program is to give the student a liberal and cultural education and a vocational competence which fits him to enter some specific type of useful employment.

College of Business Administration

Offers young men a college program with broad and thorough training in the principles of business with specialization in Accounting, Journalism, Banking and Finance, Public Administration, Industrial Administration or Marketing and Advertising. Instruction is through lectures, solution of business problems, class discussions, motion pictures and talks by business men.

College of Engineering

Provides for young men complete college programs in Engineering with professional courses in the fields of Civil, Mechanical (with Diesel, Aeronautical, and Air Conditioning options), Electrical, Chemical, Industrial Engineering, and Engineering Administration. General engineering courses are pursued during the freshman year; thus the student need not make a final decision as to the branch of engineering in which he wishes to specialize until the beginning of the sophomore year.

Co-operative Plan

The Co-operative Plan, which is available to upperclassmen in all courses, provides for a combination of practical industrial experience with classroom instruction. Under this plan the student is able to earn a portion of his school expenses as well as to make business contacts which prove valuable in later years.
